

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction.....	11
Chapter 1: Difficulties in writing a CV	19
Understanding what the CV is for	21
Not knowing what to put in the CV.....	22
Doers are not necessarily writers.....	24
CV-writing takes work!.....	31
Telling the truth.....	31
Chapter 2: What is the CV/Letter Package?	37
An advertisement for yourself	39
A first interview	41
Understanding the two parts of the CV/Letter package	45
Chapter 3: Preparing to write	55
Find out about the job.....	57
Find out about the company.....	61
Find out about yourself.....	62
Link the job, the company and yourself.....	92
Get ready for the interview.....	95
Chapter 4: What to show in a CV	101
Write your CV as an interview.....	104
Writing a CV is understanding management.....	111

Job breakdowns	120
Writing the “flowchart sentence”	131
Action verbs	136
Applying the job breakdown style to non-job achievements.....	140
Applying the job breakdown style to current activities	141
Practice exercises.....	142
 Chapter 5: How to structure the CV	149
Basic information to provide on any CV	151
What information should you give up?	164
Create a personalized structure that suits both your special case and the job!	167
 Chapter 6: CV Layout and Typing	197
The purpose of white	199
Typing	201
Formating and effects	201
Internet and scannable CVs	205
 Chapter 7: How to write the letter	213
The letter is a sales talk!	215
Content of the letter	216
Style and form	228
What not to say	242
 Chapter 8: Applying to MBA Programs	245
A carry-over from CV-writing	247
Bringing in the long-term future	252
 Chapter 9: A few last words	255
The boom in management education	257
The new focus on managerial skills	257
An increased use of internet in recruiting	258
Increased across-border job mobility	259
 Conclusion	261
Glossary English-French	267